SRI T. NAGI REDDI :—" May I know, Sir, whether the Government have been declaring holidays for all other workers on that particular day and if so, why workers employed on the Hydro-Electric Project alone were not favoured with a holiday on that day? "

THE HON. SRI N. RANGA REDDI :—" The Government declared 26th January as an additional public holiday with wages for workers under the management of Public Works, Electricity and Highways and for such of the work-charged establishment as might be allowed to avail themselves of the holiday without prejudice to work. It is only for such people that the holiday was declared."
